COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
HARRISBURG

Dear Fellow Pennsylvanians,

The health of our democracy depends on voter participation in elections. This administration has sought, over the last five years, to make the ballot box more convenient and accessible to voters. In 2019, with the bipartisan support of the Legislature, we made historic progress in achieving that goal.

It is now easier than ever for Pennsylvanians to vote. In 2020, for the first time, they will be able to vote by mail without an excuse. They also will have extended deadlines to register to vote and to cast mail-in and absentee ballots, among other significant reforms.

During the 2020 election cycle, voters will choose candidates for president, the U.S. House of Representatives, the state Senate, the state House and the state row offices of attorney general, auditor general and treasurer. To help you plan, I am pleased to introduce the 2020 election calendar. It contains a list of all the important dates and deadlines for the primary and general elections.

I hope you will find this calendar useful. Most importantly, I hope you will go to the polls in 2020 and let your voice be heard.

Sincerely,

Tom Wolf
Governor

COMMONWEALTH OF
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
HARRISBURG

Dear Fellow Pennsylvanians,

This will be an exciting election year for the commonwealth and for its voters. As the state's Chief Election Official, I am proud to present the 2020 Pennsylvania Election Calendar, a comprehensive guide for voters, candidates, and election officials.

In October 2019, Governor Wolf signed into law the most significant set of voting reforms in more than 80 years. This new law features changes that will make voting easier and more accessible for millions of Pennsylvanians. Voters will have more options in how to cast their ballots, including:

- Registering to vote up to 15 days before Election Day.
- The option to request and vote a no-excuse mail-in ballot.
- Requesting to be placed on a permanent mail-in or absentee ballot list.
- Submitting a mail-in or absentee ballot until 8 p.m. on Election Day.

Further details about the new law and deadlines can be found in this guide. In addition, the Department of State has many resources available on our website, votesPA.com. Through the website, voters can request absentee or mail-in ballots through an online application, verify their voter registration, check their polling place, and much more.

The 2020 Pennsylvania Election Calendar also provides valuable information for candidates and their campaign staff to track important dates related to ballot access and campaign finance deadlines and requirements. For detailed information on running for office, visit the Department of State's website, dos.pa.gov.

If you have additional election-related questions, call the Department's voter information hotline at 1-877-VOTESPA (1-877-868-3772).

Thank you for being an engaged and informed voter. For election-related questions, I encourage you to contact the Department's Bureau of Commissions, Elections and Legislation at 1-877-VOTESPA (1-877-868-3772).

Thank you for your interest in the electoral process.

Sincerely,
Kathy Boockvar
Secretary of the Commonwealth
